“ Tony was a friend of my father's, they were together the Monday before he laid to rest. There are many years of friendship shared amongst them. I remember going to the pasture to feed the animals they shared together or the times when he would come to our house for Easter. Tony was quite knowledgeable about the animals and was always a pleasure to be around. When my parents would travel, I could count on Tony for help when needed. He was so polite and he will be missed dearly. Keeping the family in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time of passing. Tony, you will surely be missed but most definitely not forgotten our neighbor and friend.

“ Tony was more than just a friend or coworker. He taught me to put others needs before my own always caring and working to resolve problems for others any hour of the day or night. Anytime he would talk to someone he would always say Mr or Mrs and have a good day. You don't see that much anymore these days. In many ways he was like a father or brother to me like family. He will be missed by all but what he stood for and the impact he had on anyone who met him will last forever. May God bless his family and give them comfort I know we will meet again
