“ I am so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. I knew him in law practice. He was always a gentleman, hard-working, well-prepared and representing his clients well, but never mean-spirited or game-playing. I will miss seeing him and working with him. He is a good man.##imported-begin##Jennifer McLeod##imported-end##

“ Meg and Katie,

Joyce and I want to express our condolences and sorrow for your loss. We both enjoyed and respected both your father and mother and although words are not enough, we hope you will find comfort knowing you are in our thoughts and prayers. We pray that God will help you find comfort in this time of sadness.

“ I had the privilege to know Chuck over the past 7 years. As a young criminal defense attorney, Chuck was one of the few veterans who would always take the time to talk and offer me advice on cases. Although I didn't know him as well as others, I will definitely miss seeing him around the courthouse. He was a good man.###imported-begin##Mike Jacobs###imported-end##

“ I have known Chuck since 1987, he has been one of the finest attorneys and kindest men I have ever known. Always a pleasant smile, knew just the right thing to say and willing to go that extra mile to help a friend or anyone in need. He often battled between civility and how to deliver a dose of reality with his clients which was often amusing to watch.

Then there were days he and Henry Hutchinson would sit out on the 2nd floor of the State Court Building in what they called their "office" and "consulted"...which resulted in deep laughter. I will think of their "consultations" as I pass by their "office" with fond memory.

Chuck was a Marietta institution...he was the best part of all of us. He will be in our hearts always.##imported-begin##Barbara Berger##imported-end##

LETTER FROM HEAVEN

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me.

I wish so much that you wouldn't cry, the way you did today. While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.##imported-begin##Kathryn Bell & Gary Frahm##imported-end##
