“ Looking at those beautiful pictures bring back all of our childhood memories....and all fond. We lived next door to the Wallace's my whole life; from the parents w/Ray & the boys to Gale & Ray and their family. When our father had a seizure at 92, it was Ray who came to help...Ray & Gale took our mother for a doctor appointment; what a special and giving couple. What a long happy life on Canton Street. I send prayers to the family & am so happy Ray was able to be with his sweetheart til the end..Glod Bless

“ Fond memories of playing cards with Ray and Gale and Fran and Ed Samples. We could play until 2:00 AM and never think anything of it. We loved good food, fellowship and lots of laughs. "How many times are you going to buy, Ray?"
