“ Through Cheri, I learned passion for life, passion for teaching, and most of all what the word faith really means. Her life's impact will live on in her own family and those who were so fortunate to know the unmatched spirit that was "Cheri."

“ We are so blessed to have known Cheri for the 10+ years that we have lived beside you. We could not have asked for a more precious friend and sister in Christ. May we all leave a legacy of grace, kindness, and beauty as does Cheri. May the peace of God which transcends all of our earthly understanding, keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.##imported-begin##Francis & Grazia Kungu##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to all of you in the loss of your daughter, sister, wife, mother and grandmother and my friend, Cheri. I was very fortunate to have had Cheri in my life. She was one of a kind and I do not think she ever realized how special she was to all of us. She had the knack of making all of us feel so at ease and she was such a good listener! She touched so many of our hearts and souls just by being so genuine. I always admired Cheri's love and deep belief in God. She demonstrated her devotion on a daily basis by how she lived her life. My brother Greg Cox always thought the world of Cheri and I just know he was waiting with Cheri's dad, Sam to welcome her into heaven. God bless!##imported-begin##Rita Altman##imported-end##

“ To the Ellis & Sgro Family - our heartfelt sympathies in this time of remembrance and sadness. You will find joy in your memories of Cheri's life and the legacy of love and strength she has given to so many people. We think especially of Kristina and Michael in the days to come, but also Danny Ray in his role as father and grandfather. Our hearts are sad in Cheri's passing, but we know that she has no more pain, but leaves a wonderful example for us to live by.##imported-begin##Dick, Martha & Sarah Rightmyer##imported-end##

“ Michael, Kristina, Danny, Maryann, Cindy and family,
My heart and my prayers continue to go out to all of you, as they have throughout this difficult time. Michael and Kristina, I know that the love of your mother, her strength and her goodness will continue to be a powerful force in your lives and in the lives of countless others; her love and her spirit will always be with you.
Much love,

“ Bro, Tina, Micheal, and Maryann, Cheri was not just a sister in law, but she is my sister. Her gusto for life and family, her love of God and Jesus, is what I loved about her.
Bro, you know that everyone in the family calls you the General, but let me tell you, Cheri out ranked you. She was the 2 star general of the Ellis family.
I will miss you sis, but now you are with Sam, Betty and Gus.

“ Dear Ray and Family, Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I got to know Cheri many, many years ago when we were both on the faculty of IHM School. I have kept up with her maily through our mutual friend, Cathy Doeve, your Christmas letters, and occasional get-togethers. She was truly an amazing, faith-filled, loving, wonderful, fun person, and I will miss her greatly. May God comfort you in a special way at this time, and may we all find some comfort in knowing that, for dear Cheri, all pain and suffering has ended, and she is at peace in the presence of her Heavenly Father and her Lord. My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you. Beverly Moody##imported-begin##Beverly Moody##imported-end##

“ To all of Cheri's immediate and extended family members, I will miss Cheri, but will treasure her love and friendship forever. I feel very fortunate to have known Cheri as a friend as well as a teaching peer. We shared many laughs together at school regarding her class pets. I;m so glad we kept in touch after retirement because I admired her courage and strength in facing all of life's trials and tribulations. She's been in my thoughts and prayers for years, and those thoughts and prayers will now encompass her family. Our loss is truly God's gain.

“ Dear Danny, Kristina, Michael, and the rest of Cheri's family... There are no words that adequately express my condolences. Cheri was the most amazingly good person I have ever met. Her faith was so strong, and she lived a life that was true to her faith and filled with hope and love. My children were all fortunate enough to be in her class when they were in 7th grade. Cheri saw the good in each of them, and she never lost faith that they would grow up into responsible, caring adults. I was so touched by her efforts in organizing the memorial tree for my son, Brian. I will treasure her friendship, and I hope your memories will help you as you grieve for Cheri.##imported-begin##Leslie Baker##imported-end##

“ Dear Danny, Michael, Kristina, Bekka and family, Russell and family, Maryann and Cindy and family

Cherie was loving and loved! So many good memories of your loved one. So much joy she brought to others...

Cherie offered up her suffering to the Lord. She was truly joyfilled, even amidst the pain. Her face radiated the love of the Lord. She was at peace.

We will miss Cheri and will continue to pray for all of you. May you be flooded with many joyful memories of fun-filled family times together with Cheri.

Wanted to share some of Cheri's words from March 25, 2008 with you...these words magnify the depth of Cheri's faith, trust, humility, and love of the Lord.

.. "Forgot to share the most beautiful vision that Our Lord granted me on Easter Sunday. As the Risen Christ, He held me up as a baby towards heaven, with the Holy Spirit and Our Blessed Mother present. It is quite a special miracle as it is forever in my mind whenever I'm being attacked or feeling down. His loving mercy is so awesome and as a very unworthy servant and sinner, I am so thankful. He has taught me that surrender and obedience are the only pathways to holiness and purity. Our Holy Virgin is interceding for me and I praise Jesus for her."

Cheri leaves to cherish a loving family and many, many friends who will dearly miss her warm and tender heart and her giggles whenever she was in awe of the Lord.
