“ Cheri and Eddie were in our lives for 41 years. Cheri was the one who told me I should marry my wife...she told me where to go to get the engagement rings. She told me how I should propose to my wife. She sold us our first house in Georgia. Her friendship is one that we cherished in so many ways. We were so lucky to be invited into the inner family circle. She was truly like a mother to both of us. We have shared so many laughs, Thanksgiving dinners, Christmas parties and bottles of Perseco with her and Eddie. We loved being her guinea pigs when she wanted to try out a new dinner recipe. We will miss her so much. The last text I had from her was telling me she loved me. The last words she spoke to us were "I love you". She will be so missed. We loved her so much. We are so lucky to have had her in our lives for so long.

How can you sum up 4 decades of friendship with Cheri? She had the biggest heart for all. We loved her so much and will always cherish our memories with her and the Chellino family. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ As Cheri's cousin, I was only 9 when Cheri and Eddie were married. As an adult, I did visit them a few times over the years. I always admired their marriage. I have wonderful memories with her and will miss her very much.
