“ I met Cheryl during COVID-19 clinic. She was very welcoming person. I would remember she was very happy to receive her 10 yrs award with Emory and felt proud of her. Then, I decided to transfer to another clinic and was she unhappy that I was leaving her behind in the covid clinic. But at a later time we were both excited to be reunited within the same team. She would always share pictures she had in her office of her son, daughter in-law and her princess River. I'm still in disbelief you are no longer here. I will definitely miss those talks and text we had from time to time. Cheryl you were a great friend and mentor for me. I will miss you so much.

“ I first met Cheryl at work decades ago but kept in touch through all these years with our children growing up, life's up and downs, many long phone calls or her just stopping by to chat up, sharing photos of her visits with Drew and Jessica in Chattanooga, their cruise, and darling baby River. She is now their guardian angel.

Cheryl and I met at work for Emory over 12 years ago. She always had a cheerful manner about her. I will remember the snacks/cookies she brought to share with everyone and her socks, necklaces and earrings for every imaginable holiday. She was an extremely detail oriented person who went the extra mile for the patients and physicians she worked for at Emory. She will be missed.

“ My memories of Cheryl from Church and School are so special. Cheryl was one of the sweetest people I've known in my lifetime, and I know that she touched others in the same way. Her smile and her laugh would light up a room, and she always made everyone feel meaningful. Sending love and prayers for Nancy and her whole family.

Cheryl will be missed at Emory. I enjoyed working with her for many years. She was so bubbly and full of stories about Drew, his family and especially River. Cheryl remembered so many people and times from growing up in the area. It always amazed me how many details she could recall.
