

Christopher Gregory Walker

May 26, 1993 - March 12, 2013

Christopher Gregory Walker was a remarkable young man. While senseless violence took him away from the ones who loved him they will remember him for the many hats that he wore. As a faith and family oriented man, Chris understood the importance of the people around him and the role of God in his life. As a full time student Chris understood the importance of education, and was still able to balance a very successful job at Sears. As a human being, he had a profound understanding of the world around him and he was able to smile in spite of it. This wonderful smile complimented his sense of humor and bright demeanor. His true passion was music, and he always took time to nourish that passion. In a musical field filled with negative, Chris stood out as a message of positive. His lyrics were from the heart. He was a man with class who connected with all he came in contact with. He will be remembered fondly. At 19, Chris leaves behind a Brother Ben, a Father and Mother (Mary Jo and Gregory) along with many more friends and family, whom he touched so deeply. Visitation will be at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Rd. Roswell, GA 30075, Sunday March 17, 2013 from 7-9pm. Funeral Mass at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church 535 Rucker Rd. Alpharetta, GA 30004 on Monday March 18, 2013 at 10am.

“ We are sorry that we cannot be there to share this time with you in person. Never forget how special you all are to us and how you have touched our lives. We will all miss Chris and his winning smile. He was a wonderful person -- the product of an equally wonderful family. None of us will truly be able to understand what this has been like for you. But in our own way each one of us feels as if we have lost a little piece of a son, a brother and a best friend. May the Lord of Light and Grace bring you comfort and peace. May all of the good things that define Chris live on in each of you every day for the rest of your lives, that he shall not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Jacki, Steve, Lexie, Sam, Lilly, Lucy and Adam Brada##imported-end##

“ Dear Mary Jo, Greg, and Ben,

I am so sorry to hear of the tragic loss of Christopher. I remember the four of you so well from our visits at mass at Resurrection. I have been praying that Christopher is resting comfortably in God's mercy and love. I also have been praying for the three of you, especially for Ben.

May God bless you in your grief.

“ Dear Walkers,
Chris was an amazing young man. I remember him coming to the Res basketball games, just to watch Ben play. He realized that you have to live in the present, not putting things off until later. Family was always very important to him. And he could dance like nobody else too. Mr. Smooth-O! To say Chris had "the rythmn" is an understatement. He was the "rythmn" as evidenced by the graceful moves he put out at Ben's graduation. Chris will be greatly missed by everyone. He touched so many lives without even trying. He will be greatly missed. We are proud to have know him. You can't put what we feel into words.

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Ben:
I am so incredibly sorry to hear about your loss. Chris was a wonderful young man who touched many lives and will continue to live on in the hearts of those he touched. I met Chris through our confirmation classes together because he was in my small group, and he always inspired me with his devotion to God and to living a positive life. I will miss Chris dearly, and my love and prayers go out to you all.##imported-begin##Shannon Curtin##imported-end##

“ Greg, Mary Jo and Ben, we are so sorry for your loss. Know that your Resurrection community is deeply saddened. I would like to share a Hebrew proverb that I hope you find comforting: " Say not in grief 'he is no more,' but live in thankfulness that he was." We were truly blessed with the gift of such a beautiful life. Chris will be missed.
