“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I know the pain of losing folks and final goodbyes are hard no matter the age. You will never stop missing her and there are days when you would give anything to pick up the phone and her voice again. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Rufus and family. Please know that we are so sorry for your loss of Chulita. She was such a beautiful and gentle lady. She was always encouraging me when I came into the family in 1970. She was such a good mother, wife, sister-in-law and friend.

The sadness and grief are overwhelming, I am sure. I have been where the kids are in losing my mother and so has Leon and you, Rufus. It is so wonderful that God comes and comforts our hearts at times like these. We have been and will be praying for you all.

So sorry we can't be there.

“ It is strange to think of the Chulita that I think of when I knew her was much younger than I am today! Such a sweet, sweet woman. She always made me feel welcome in Seymour and Springfield. The beauty of her eyes and smile were so apparent the moment one met her, but one soon realized that she had an inner beauty also. Cherish your memories, write down the stories you hear, and keep her in your hearts and memory forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
