

Clare Louise Gump

Clare Louise Gump, of Alpharetta, passed peacefully at her home. Clare was the beloved wife of F. Thomas Gump. She was also the loving mother of Cheryl (Mark) Perkins, Caryn (Todd) Sudduth, Anne (Kevin) Carlock, and Tom (Catherine) Gump. Clare was the devoted grandmother to Matthew and Michael Perkins, Ryan and Rose Sudduth, Caroline and Emily Carlock, and Andrew Gump. Clare was preceded in death by her father, Louis Eichhold. She is survived by her mother, Clara Eichhold, sister Betty (Frank) Thesing, and brothers Tony (Connie) Eichhold, Lou (Diane) Eichhold, and George (Peg) Eichhold, as well as many loving nieces and nephews. Clare was an accomplished artist and lived for God, her family, her children and her grandchildren. Her most precious blessings were her grandchildren who knew her as Honey. Friends are welcome to join the family at St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church, Roswell, Georgia, for a visitation on Friday, December 1, 2006, anytime between the hours of 6:00 pm and 8:00 pm (with a prayer service to follow); and Saturday, December 2, 2006 at 11:00 am for a celebratory mass. Interment will follow at Arlington Memorial Park. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, Roswell/Alpharetta 770-645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
