

Mrs. Claudia Ellington

June 19, 1926 - December 29, 2015

Mrs. Claudia Mae Ellington (Wingo) unexpectedly passed away on December 29, 2015, in Richardson, TX at the age of 89. Claudia is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Byron and Conni Ellington, of Parker, TX, grandson, Scott Ellington of Dallas, TX, granddaughter, Sharon Ellington of Dallas, TX, granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Marcia and Adam Maslow, great-granddaughters, Maison and Melaina Maslow, all of Murphy, TX, and the family dog, Charlie, who she fed peanut butter sandwiches and dearly loved. She is preceded in death by her husband, James Elbert Ellington, of Roswell, GA, brothers, Almond and Harold Wingo, and sister Catherine Wingo Walls.

Claudia was born on June 19, 1926, in Roswell GA. She married Elbert Ellington in 1942 and resided in Roswell, GA for 78 years before relocating to Dallas, TX in 2004. Claudia spent her life surrounded by family and friends. Nothing made her happier than an adventurous family vacation or a trip to the beach with loved ones. She traveled the world with her family and her favorite place on earth was the Cayman Islands. She thoroughly enjoyed nature's beauty, especially seasonal flowers and summer nights on the porch. She loved being with her two great-granddaughters, Maison & Melaina, and spent many joyous afternoons watching them drive their cars, playing doctor with them, or watching them dance. She was loved by all who knew her for her happy demeanor and sincere interest in them. A beautiful person both inside and out, she will be sorely missed.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, January 7, 1:00 PM at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors. The family will receive friends Wednesday evening, 6:00 - 8:00 PM at the funeral home.
