

Clayton Earl Mitchell, Sr.

January 3, 1936 - November 12, 2012

Clayton "Earl" Mitchell, Sr. age 76 of Alpharetta died November 12, 2012. He was born in 1936 in Buckhead and attended North Fulton High School. He moved to Roswell in 1963. He served four years in the US Army. He was a dedicated Mason and Shriner. In 1977 he moved to Alpharetta. He loved Alpharetta and considered it to be home. He was a member of the Alpharetta City Council from 1983-1993. "He built it and they came." He was a child of the King, an awesome husband to Matilda; a wonderful dad to Donna, Skeet and Billy; grandfather to Ashley and Sterling.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Earl's passing. As a college student in the early 70's I found myself on a Stan Musial League team Earl managed and played with. A charming and profoundly affectionate man that everyone migrated to. The last time I saw Earl was in probably 1973 at the Municipal Auditorium in Atlanta where he was working during a Bad Finger concert. Earl sought me out when he recognized me. I can recognize that affectionate smile in this obituary a mile away. My sincerest sympathies for your loss.....Tim Powers

“ *Matilda,
I am very sorry that you lost your husband. All the time I have been thinking of you and your family, especially lately I have been thinking of you and wondering how things were going. You have said little about your situation to me.
Although I never met Earl, I am sure he was a great man. I know his wonderful wife. Be strong.

“ Dearest My Sweet Daddy, I got to kiss you goodbye one last time this morning and your little, frail body was not the man I always knew. I now know you are in a better place but my heart just doesn't understand yet. I will always Love and miss you but I will be fine and as I promised I will care for Mom. Goodbye Daddy and I look forward to the day we see each other again...##imported-begin##Donna Mitchell Wine##imported-end##

“ Dear Mitchell family:

It was a pleasure serving with all of you during Earl's term as city council and I recall all of the fun times we all spent celebrating our great city. Earl truly loved Alpharetta and always tried his very best to make sure we had a city that benefited everyone. He was a great asset and his love for the city continued after he no longer served. The road ahead will be a new adventure for all of you, but God will guide all of you in the right direction. Just hold on to the fond memories and celebrate his life everyday.

“ My dear friend . . . A bright, bright light has gone out on Earth today, but Heaven's more fun now that Earl's there ... more than likely teaching the angels how to do the ham-bone ! You were a wonderful friend to so many, Earl, because you had such a soft heart. You were blessed to have Matilda ever present beside you through the truly wonderful times and through the sad times as well.

God's speed, my friend ; see you later.##imported-begin##Nan##imported-end##
