“ I just recently learned of Clay's passing. It broke my heart. I always hoped that he had gotten married and had children. I'm so happy that happened for him. I've held all of you, his loved ones, in prayer since I found out. I'm so deeply sorry that such a wonderful person was taken so soon. I can't believe it's been 10 years. Clay was loved by many but he was my first love and always had a very special place in my heart. Rest in sweet, loving peace my dear Clay. You are so very missed❤️

“ Clay, you were like a brother to me growing up, along with Stuart and Russell. I have so many good memories growing up; playing pickle, water balloon fights, burning bugs with magnifying glasses and riding bikes. My childhood wouldn't have been the same without you. I hope you are in a happier place now. You will be missed by many but never forgotten!###imported-begin##Kristi Meyers###imported-end##

“ As long-time friends of Stuart and Laurie we were struck by their sad news and grateful we could walk beside them through their journey. Moved by their events, we would like to share the following words:

If you are wondering where I have gone do not look for me where I last was.

Life left a scar and I moved into the recesses...into a place I once knew.

You know the place...when I was young and free...where the memories lie.

Where your memories lie.

Look there and you will find me.

Look there and find love.

Look there and will live through you.##imported-begin##Julie and Aly Gonenne##imported-end##

“ Losing you has been the most painful experience of my life. But even the darkest clouds have a silver lining. I know you are now in a wonderful place to watch over your girls. Our family has become much closer through this process. We've cried together, laughed together and can all agree that we were truly blessed to have you in our lives. You taught me so much and you will always be in my heart. I love you and miss you big brother.##imported-begin##Stuart Magerfleisch##imported-end##
