“ Uncle Cliff was always the one to make you laugh. He always enjoyed life. Darin, Rebekah and I went to visit Uncle Cliff & Aunt Diana a couple of times when they lived in New Mexico. Rebekah loved all the hummingbirds that would come feed along the back porch. Of course Darin loved going to Uncle Cliff's garage to see all his tools! Many from Grandpa J. Uncle Cliff loved taking us around in the golf cart or giving us the keys to take down to the pool for some fun. I loved helping Aunt Diana getting together a meal, then we would all sit around and talk and share many laughs! Uncle Cliff will be missed for his gentle kindness and laughter.

“ Super cool and selfless, that is how I would describe Uncle Cliff. I had the honor of really getting to know Cliff and Diana when they moved out to California ~ Their kindness and their gift for making it easy and fun to be around them was instantly embraced. It was always a great time when we got together.
I once visited them in Ruidoso and Cliff and I spent the day skiing ~ it so much fun and a memory I will always remember

“ Uncle Cliff was a good man. Friendly and generous are two words I would use to describe him. I thoroughly enjoyed our times with Cliff and Diana in New Mexico. Many wonderful memories. The Johnson Family Reunions were the best of times. ❤️💔❤️🙏

Roger Johnson Cliff and I grew up together. We were like brothers. I'm sure glad I got to see him a few weeks ago before he passed. May God be with him and he's resting in peace now.
