“ *Dear Family and Friends,
Our hearts were broken to hear of Craig's passing and I will always remember him as an adult who was always kind and sweet to me and as a playful child with his bright eyes and golden hair with just a touch of mischief in his smile. Craig, where ever you are, I prayer for your peace and and happiness in the next world awaiting your family and friends once again together. Love always, Aunt Maggie##imported-begin##Meg Beato##imported-end##*

“ I have known Craig for several years through work and I thought of him as a friend as well. I looked forward to his calls and visits and he was such a huge hearted guy. His laughter and the smiles and personality were wonderful. He meant something to my family and he will be sorely missed. The world has too few people in it like Craig. I will keep his family in my prayers.##imported-begin##Catherine Cocke##imported-end##

“ Craig, you are one of the few people in my life that only had to communicate with you're smile....I'm beginning to see it in your brothers also. As your mother recently commented, "my son could make me as mad as hell and then, in an instant, make me laugh much more".....and we all love you for doing that to all of us.##imported-begin##Uncle Joey##imported-end##
