

Craig Van Dyck Morrissey

May 28, 1967 - May 8, 2013

Craig Van Dyck Morrissey, 45, of Roswell, GA, died in an automobile accident on May 8. He was the beloved son of Nancy R. Morrissey and the late Robert M. Morrissey and beloved brother to Elizabeth and brother-in-law Gary Kleiman of Alexandria, VA. He is also survived by his niece and goddaughter Diana Kleiman, as well as two aunts and four cousins in MA.

He graduated from Newtown (CT) High School where he participated in marching and concert band, playing the French horn and trumpet, and the school choir. He graduated from New England College, Henniker, NH, with a degree in communications/written journalism. In college he was active in sports, choir, and the college radio station. His first job was with his best friend working on Jam Music Magazine.

In GA, where he moved when his Dad became ill, he worked at Pike Nurseries, Wolf Camera, and several other companies. He was an active parishioner at Christ Church Episcopal in Norcross where he sang in the choir, participated in the theater group and chaired the grounds committee. Craig was best known for his great kindness and helpfulness to others. He was loved dearly by friends up and down the East Coast, and was a great supporter of local music groups. Craig's family would like to thank the many friends who have sent/posted such lovely tributes noting his selflessness, kindness and friendship.

Memorial service on Sat., May 11 at 11:00am with reception to follow at Christ Church Episcopal, 400 Holcomb Bridge Rd., Norcross, GA. Burial in Amherst,

MA at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Christ Church Episcopal; Newtown Scholarship Fund, PO Box 302, Newtown, CT 06470; New England College, Henniker, NH; or The Humane Society of Atlanta, Mansell Campus, 1565 Mansell Rd., Alpharetta, GA 30009.
