“ When Darrin and I were growing up on campus, people often got our dads confused. They would usually figure it out when people asked my dad about his sons or Mr. Christ about his daughters. I always felt that made Darrin kind of a brother-once-removed. He was, of course, a dear brother in the Lord. I appreciated his leadership in our high school days. My prayers have been with you, his family, constantly this week as we, his classmates, alternately laughed and cried over our memories of him.

“ Cici, you guys will forever be in my thoughts. I will miss Darrin terribly and just want to let you know that there was never a day that he was at MCAA that we did not talk about our families together. He kept me laughing and made PE more than just a class or a job for me. I looked forward to every Tuesday and Thursday because I knew he would be there with jokes and laughter in store. We could talk about any and everything and he loved what he did from church to school but most of all he loved you guys dearly! Keeping you, Riley and Reagan in my prayers forever more!! God bless and keep you!

“ Dear Cici, Dave, Becca, Derrick and Johnette:
Doug and I are deeply grieved with you in the homegoing of Darrin. We know that he was a wonderful son, brother, husband and father. We trust that the following will speak to your hearts: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Heaven becomes A LOT sweeter because of Darrin's passing from this world and into the Lord's arms. Dave and Becca, we thank the Lord for your faithfulness through the many years that we have known you. May the God of Comfort carry each of you through this difficult time. Darrin had a great impact on many young people's lives and we are praying for the salvation of others through this tragic loss. Wish we could be with you for the visitation and service but please be assured of our prayers for each of you.

“ Our hearts and love go out to your whole family. My name is Melissa and my daughter HannahBrooke is in Mr. Christ's PE class. We both loved him. I have loved seeing his smile for the last 3 years at Burruss. (HannahBrooke is in 2nd grade.)

Upon learning that Mr. Christ went to heaven we were very sad. One of the first things HannahBrooke said was, "now he knows my dad. :)" What a sweet happy truthful comfort.

We are very aware that they are having a great time in heaven and that it is only a time till we are all back together again --- Thanks to the Blood of Jesus and His Love given to all of us who have asked Him in our hearts.

I pray that the Healing Power and Prayers sent to your whole family will be felt everyday. God will hold each of you close as He promises and He can't break a promise. He had been completely Faithful to our family and healing.

In HannahBrooke's and my talking about Mr. Christ I asked HannahBrooke what will Mr. Christ teach me about PE when I get to heaven. She immediately got up and started teaching me how to do the line game and so much more. Lots of smiles. She shared how he always talked about his children. After praying and thanking God for Mr. Christ and Jesus to Hold you all close, we went to get a ballon and send it to heaven for Mr. Christ. We send a lot of balloons to daddy and Jesus. We knew that Mr. Christ would want to have one to celebrate being in heaven where we, too, will experience all the amazingness of Heaven that God has for you and us. This is only a Temporary time of separation. Next time we see Mr. Christ and Jim (my husband and HannahBrooke's daddy) we won't ever have to say goodbye again.

We care and we love you. We saved the ballon string for you. We gave Mr. Christ a blue balloon. HannahBrooke said that he would love that color:) may you EACH feel Jesus' presence daily.

In His Peace,

Melissa and HannahBrooke##imported-begin##Melissa and HannahBrooke Sessions Bothwell ##imported-end##

Darrin was such a great co-worker, teacher, and friend. He taught Delaney for several years and was a huge influence in her life. He attended an award ceremony for her that was after school hours (he had to go out of his way to attend). This had a huge impact on my family because it showed how much he cared about his students. “ My daughter, Jennifer Brown Olsen, called me to let me know of Darrin's death. He was Jennifer's 'first boyfriend' at BJA and a sweeter boy I couldn't have asked for. Becca you told me one time that you prayed for "strong-willed" children so you could bend that will towards God. I have never never forgotten that and quoted you often. Obviously reading about Darrin's life... God honored your prayers and he was a wonderful man of God. I grieve for you and his family but I celebrate that he is home with the One who loves us forever. You may not remember me and that is OK...I just wanted to extend to you our sympathy and to let you know that Jennifer, William, Amy and our families will be praying for you and yours...In Him Evelyn Brown Marshall###imported-begin###Evelyn Brown Marshall###imported-end##

Our heart goes out to all of his family and friends that have been so deeply affected, especially for Cici and his two children that he cared so much about. I loved Darrin in that he and I could debate different viewpoints of religion and he graciously accepted our differences, and with calm conviction, he would educate me on his views. Darrin also had a great work ethic that my wife and I were fortunate to be the recipient of - detailed and professional. He was genuine, sincere, kind, non-judgmental, and an all-around classy guy. “ Dear Christ Family,

Our hearts were saddened to hear of the death of Darrin. II Corinthians 1:3-4 reads, "Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." God's ways are not our ways, but His ways are always right. You continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. ---Pat & Diana###imported-begin##Pat & Diana Simms###imported-end##

“ I always remember Darrin with a sense of humor and a smile. Such a wonderful and classy family - all the way around. What a wonderful example and legacy to the youth you have impacted and the foundation you have set in your children. Praying that you feel the arms of God surround you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Joy Pritchard Stugg##imported-end##

“ My heart is breaking for your family right now. I think the most comforting thing I've heard was what Pastor Conley said yesterday: "We are in the land of the dying. But Darrin is now in the land of the living". My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Christy Diachenko##imported-end##

“ Cici: My heart aches for you. I am praying for you and your family. I know Darrin will be greatly missed. He was a great guy and great friend to my brother. I couldn't help but think yesterday about how he is free from the problems of this world. We wait for that glorious day of reunion that is our hope as believers. Love you.##imported-begin##Michelle Rogier Shuman##imported-end##

“ CiCi and kids, I am so very sorry. I knew Darrin more by the great things I heard about him than knowing him personally. However, I do know him to have been a very fine man who loved his dear wife, his children, and his Lord. Bless you during these troubling times. Please know of my prayers for you all. “ Dear CiCi,
Please know that we have been bringing you and your family before the throne of grace continually. We cannot pretend to know what you are going through, but "the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered."
Darrin had, and will continue to have, a great impact on our daughter and son-in-law's life.

“ Darrin and I were always friends growing up together but we never got to know each other until we went to CIT camp at the Wilds the same year. He was my Dear Friend during those training days. He always had a sweet smile and always looked for ways to help any other campers. I will always remember fondly those two weeks. CiCi and family, my heart aches for you. Please know that my family and I will be asking God to keep you strong.##imported-begin##Deb Annand Liga##imported-end##
