“ PawPaw thank you for being a awesome grandfather to the twins, thanks to the memory of pictures they will always know how much you cared and enjoyed being with them. I thank you for being a warm and caring father-in-law to a Florida girl. Your Southern charm and hospitality lives in your son David. Many customs will continue in our home like always taking time to come visit before we go on trips, calling just to say "howdy howdy", stopping by was always an option and homemade ice cream after several home grown tomato sandwiches during the summer. You life lives on in our hearts and minds. Say Howdy to all our special family and friends and greet us when its our turn to live in the Garden of Eden.....make sure we can hear you loud and clear.
