

David Famiye Yankey

August 29, 1959 - September 23, 2013

David Famiye Yankey, 54, devoted husband and dedicated father, passed away September 23, 2013 at his home in Roswell.

He was born and raised in Axim, Ghana. As a young adult he earned a Bachelor's degree from Sekondi College, Ghana, and a MBA from Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia. He also held the professional certification of PMP, Project Management Professional. After marrying his bride and starting a family in Sydney, he moved to the U.S. in 2000. David was active in his community and spent many hours volunteering for Habitat for Humanity, supporting Centennial Knights Football Boosters, mentoring individual team members, and serving as president of the Spring Ridge HOA. He and his family are active members of Fellowship Bible Church in Roswell, GA. He had a heart for the homeless and often served in a downtown soup kitchen or met individuals on the street, encouraging them, providing resources, and sharing the gospel. David truly walked the walk, and lived his faith in all he did. He proudly became a U.S. Citizen in July 2013. Above all he was deeply devoted to God and his family. He is preceded in death by his mother Bernice Coleman and father David Yankey. He is survived by his wife Darina; sons David Yankey, Jr., Alexander, and Jerome; brothers James A Yankey, Larry E Yankey (both of Ghana), Charles N M Yankey (United Kingdom), and Bernard Yankey (Italy); sisters Grace B Yankey, Joyce A Yankey, and Lily B Yankey (all of Ghana); father-in-law Gustav Pagac, mother-in-law Helena Pagac, and brothers-in-law Daniel Peter Lubosh Pagac and George Pagac.

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held Saturday September 28th, 2pm at Fellowship Bible Church, 480 W. Crossville Road, Roswell, GA 30075. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Vision Atlanta, PO Box 867, Roswell, GA 30077 (on line at thecampgrace.com in care of David Yankey), and to Wiphan Care Ministries, 551 Cox Road, Roswell, GA 30075 (on line at wiphan.org).

“ Dear Dinara, David Jr., Alexander and Jerome,
Our hearts are broken from hearing about the sudden passing of your husband and father. It is a great loss and an unimaginable sadness. We grieve for you and hope that from God's love you can find strength, rest and comfort. Although we didn't know David well, we know he loved God, his family, and helping others. What a wonderful man! Although he is no longer here physically, he is eternally alive in spirit. You are all in our prayers. Sending our love,

“ David and I worked on a habitat home a few years back. I brought my son along, he was in high school at the time. David made friends with him, spent one on one time with him because he wanted to learn about his interests and plans for the future. I didn't even realize this conversation happened until one day at work David told me about it. This is one small example how David invested his time and cared for the people around him. My memory of David will be how he loved his wife and sons and his strong faith in The Lord which was so apparent in his life.###imported-begin###Bob Fuller###imported-end##

Speak Lord, for Thy servant heareth, Speak peace to my anxious soul, And help me to feel that all my ways Are under Thy wise control; That He who cares for the lily, And heeds the sparrow's fall, Shall tenderly lead His loving child: For He made and loveth all.

“ When I first met David Yankey I immediately thought to myself "I would NOT want to get in a scrap with this guy." About 30 seconds later I realized that before me stood an extremely bright, insightful, creative and devoted family man. He genuinely cared about what he did and the people he worked with. He took the time to talk with a person and not at them. I will never be able to overstate how much positivity radiated from him. I feel privileged to have met him and will never forget the sound of his laugh. To his wife, sons, brothers, sisters and remaining family members my sincerest condolences.

“Darina and Children, It is with heavy heart but with gratitude to God for his mercies that we sympathy with you over the passing of David, your husband and father to David jr and siblings. The first time we met David, he acknowledged my husband as his "African Brother," and always appreciated us as his own. In december at the Parade of Roses in LA, he made me and my kids feel at home because my husband did not attend. Darina, you and I met for the first time. At the Army game, he cheered Ikenna my son #94 and reassured him with his support. That's David we knew for a short time. At the last game, my husband looked forward to seeing his "African brother" which did not happen.

Darina, It is truly a rude shock to hear of his passing. David was a good natured person. He was friendly and liked people he met. He was a great supporter of his sons, he was persistence in attending the games and other activities at Stanford University. He was proud of his sons and family. He was proud of his African/Ghana heritage. You and the kids must be proud of the legacy he left for your family. Death is a painful occurrence especially, of a loved husband and father, but take solace in the fact that he has gone to be with the Lord, his maker where there is no more sorrow, pain or anguish. David SR is resting peacefully in the bosom of his maker. May David's soul rest in perpetual peace.

Darian, be rest assured that we will not forget you and your children. We are all one big Cardinal family. May God grant you the fortitude to bear your loss.##imported-begin##Chichi and Francis Nwafor #94 Stanford Cardinal Parents##imported-end##
