

David Scott Harris

August 1, 2024

David Scott Harris, age 70, of Roswell, GA died August 1, 2024 at Wellstar Hospital after complications from pneumonia.

Scott was born in Owensboro, KY. Throughout his life his family moved around to many places for his dad's job with the military. He was an exceptional student and all-around athlete, even having a chance to star in the Little League World Series. He attended high school in Munich, Germany and college in Missouri. He met his wife, Tricia, in Warrensburg, Missouri where they attended college. They lived for 24 years in Kansas City, Missouri where he had 3 daughters that he adored. He was an outstanding husband and father and an all around great guy. You could always find him reading to his girls, attending their dance recitals and coaching them in basketball and volleyball. He was a die-hard Kansas City Chiefs fan and had season tickets to both the Chiefs and Royals games. Scott loved to entertain and was always surrounded by friends whether it was to watch sports or play water volleyball in the family pool. A job opportunity with Lease Plan brought the family to Roswell, GA in July of 1997. This was a big change, but together they made it work and continued the traditions they had established in Missouri with many new friends in Georgia. He eventually went on to work for General Motors until his retirement in 2023. The family had many happy years together and he will be greatly missed by friends and family.

He is preceded in death by his mother Lois Kindt Harris and father William T Harris. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Tricia Harris; daughters Julie Harris; Jaclyn Brenden (Jaryd); Ellen Porter (Alex); grandchildren Abbey, Audrey, Blake, Cecelia, Barrett, Henry and Phillip; brothers Kent Harris (Libby); Mark Harris (Emily); 28 nieces and nephews; and over 40 great nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Service will be held at Northside Chapel on Saturday, August 24th. The family will receive visitors from 10-11:00. The service will begin at 11. There will be a reception after the ceremony. In Lieu of Flowers those wishing to make donations can send them to St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Scott's name.

“ I'm almost positive the first time I met Scott was in the garage of Chris Bond. We were watching TV and having a few drinks (yes, the word few can be interpreted differently). Scott and Jaryd pull up in one of the many new vehicles that Scott and Trish drove down in. Jaryd steps out and goes to introduce Scott, but Scott went directly to the back of the vehicle to grab his cooler of Bud light. He brings the cooler to the garage entrance, sets it down, and says "I'm Scott, nice to meet you" in his mid western accent. The night goes on and by the end of the night, I felt like he was already a great friend. He was just so easy to talk to and just incredibly genuine. Scott always just seemed so positive and to have a great outlook no matter what was going on in his or his family's life. I can honestly say, I never had any cross words with Scott. For that matter, I don't even remember arguing with him. I really looked up to him and always thought he was a great husband, father, and grandfather. I admired him in so many ways and will miss him greatly.

“ The Hundelt family moved to Roswell in 1998 and one of the first families we met were the Harris family. Scott and Tricia were from the Midwest and we immediately knew we had friends for life. We had parties, golf, bar-b-ques, you name it...all fun...and sometimes maybe too much fun...Of course the question every weekend was...when does volleyball start? Scott led the festivities...shallow end...deep end...who will win...and does anyone know the score?...I saw Patrick mentioned Scott's favorite tag line --"Sorry for ya!!"..He loved to win and liked to make sure to remind you when you didn't!!!. What great times. Scott will be missed by all and we express our love and prayers to the entire Harris family.

“ Scott was a dear friend of mine. We met at LeasePlan nearly 14 years ago. We always planned our breaks to meet up and talk with our friends at the "Hut". He was the kindest man who was always happy, smiling and laughing.

He reminded me of my father. "Family first". Always talking about his beautiful wife Trish and his wonderful daughters. Shared pictures of all of his grandchildren and the activities they attended and milestones of their growth. He was so proud of his family.

Statesboro "The Boro" was always a topic of conversation, since he and Trish traveled there so often. We shared that place in our hearts with his family there and my daughter attended Georgia Southern.

Scott sold me his Trooper for my son's first vehicle. Probably against Trish's wishes, she loved the Trooper to thrift. It was a great vehicle. I loved it too Trish.

Grilling and pool volleyball with friends at their house was always so fun.

After Scott retired, we stayed in touch. He even brought the "Boys" up to Ballground one day to meet me at the Burger Bus for lunch. A day I will always hold dear in my heart.

He just cared about people. I will miss you dearly my friend.

“ I will never forget and always treasure the day I met Scott. We met at the Summerhill farm real estate sales trailer and he told me he was looking for a lot he could put a pool in. Scott told me about the volleyball pool parties he had in Kansas City, Missouri. I didn't believe he could duplicate those magical days at a new place in Summerhill Farm. Boy was I wrong! Scott made friends with everyone and we had some great times at the pool we had epic volley ball battles, good food, beers and many laughs. One of Scotts favorite sayings was “Sorry for ya” Scott was a huge KC Chiefs fan. The Chiefs play the Denver Broncos two times per year and have beat the Broncos two times per year for several years and Scott would say sorry for ya! I will hear his voice again in my mind this year after his Chiefs beat the Broncos again. Scott was a good Father, kind, generous and a loyal friend. My wife Paula and I have shed some tears and will shed more tears as memories pop up about Scott. No doubt that if Scott is looking down upon us he would be saying sorry for ya, sorry for ya, sorry for ya.

Patrick Adamson summed it up perfectly. Scott's “Sorry for ya” made me laugh countless times. He would text me when my Chicago Bears lost with his famous saying... “Sorry for us” is now the emotion for those many friends that he touched or cared about. Scott was one of a kind...
