“ Dave, you are beloved by many and will be fondly remembered by all who've known you. My thoughts are with your family and friends who will keep your spirit close at heart forever. Rest in peace.

*Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Shuppert family. When our son Eric was in middle school, he came home one afternoon and told us that he had a job working at Top Banana. We told him he was too young to have a job, but he was determined and we relented. He worked for the Shupperts until he graduated high school. That job taught him about responsibility and hard work. The work ethics he learned there are ones he demonstrates today as a band teacher and as a husband and a father. Thank you, Dave Shuppert for giving Eric that job!

“ I have had the privilege of serving with Dave for several years on the production team at North Point. He was as kind a person as you would ever want to meet and has been a source of endless encouragement in my own biking/running endeavors. I am so grateful for having known him.##imported-begin##Brad Weston##imported-end##

“ Sharon, Tamara, Max, Emily, Nina, Shirley, Sylvia, and other family members, my heart breaks for all of you. I know there is a great void in your hearts that can never be filled, except, perhaps to some extent with the joyful memories of this wild, wacky, wonderful man who was Dave Shuppert.

Thank you for the honor of being present when life support was removed and he went to Heaven. I had expected it to be terrible, and in some ways it was, but it was also one of the sweetest things I've ever experienced. Once again this wacky, creative, sweet soul pulled off a special occasion of "Top Banana" caliber. (And it was SO appropriate that Dave "Slipped The Surly Bonds of Earth...Put Out His Hand And Touched the Face of God" just as Rodney was speaking of the Top Banana Standard of Excellence.) He went out doing something he loved, never felt any pain, and was surrounded by friends and family reminiscing about why he was so special. Just the kind of exit he would have wanted. Way to go, Dave! Once again, you proved that you are the "Top Banana!" You'll be missed!

And guys, did you notice the sunset last night?! There was a blue-pink sky celebrating the newest angel in heaven!###imported-begin##Jane Bates##imported-end##
