

David R. Maxwell

January 21, 1955 - August 10, 2013

Mr. David R. Maxwell, 58, native Atlantan, passed into the next life on Saturday, August 10th, 2013. He was preceded in death by his father, Theodore A. Maxwell and mother, Shella B. Maxwell. He is survived by his wife Janice of 32 years and his two sons, T. Brett LaFoy and Lance E. Maxwell and two dear grandsons, Roman and Athen LaFoy. He is also survived by his brothers, Dwain Maxwell, Theodore (Buck) Maxwell, and Robert (Bob) White and sisters, Harriet Smith and Barbara Scragg and mom Sybil White along with numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. David was active in the Saint Bernard Club both on the local and national levels. He was strong in his Christian faith and had an ongoing ministry of helping others. David was an avid reader, his favorite author was James A. Michener and he loved all music including rhythm and blues, jazz, rock, country and gospel. A celebration of life will be held Saturday, August 17th at 1 pm at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, 12050 Crabapple Rd., in Roswell. His service will be officiated by his brother, Dwain Maxwell.

“ My dear Janice. Our hearts are heavy with this news. I just happened to see this post, we had no idea about David. He was always a vibrant, funny and good friend. Even when we didn't see ya'll very much during these last years, but you were both in our thoughts and conversations a lot. Please stay in touch and know that we will always have fond memories of our 'glory days' of yore.##imported-begin##Marc and Pam Repp##imported-end##

“ Dear Janice,

I am so happy that you shared 32 years with David. You two were indeed partners in life. He loved life and you both created a wonderful life together. David is leading the angelic choir now. He is only in the next room.
