“ I'm so sad to hear of David's passing. He was a good man. I first met Dave way back in the 1970s at his Father's shop known as the Shaker Shop. Dave was still in school, but you could see that the tire business was his interest. I lost touch with Dave for several years till I met him working very hard for Butler Tire on Roswell Road. Then lost him again for a short time only to find him as NTW in Sandy Springs, where he left after a time. Eventually I found him, again, as an owner and operator of Perfect Performance. Where I have had all my tire and alignment work done in a friendly, completely competent way, and reasonable costs. In closing, I always thought of David as a friend and never just a businessman. Always friendly and asking about the family and sharing about his family. David may have been in pain these years, but he always had a smile and great disposition. I will miss him and am sure he and Old Man Usher are up there catching up and doing what they love best.
