

David William Westbrook

March 8, 1949 - March 20, 2026

David William Westbrook, lovingly known as “Daddy Dave” and “Big B,” took his first breath in heaven and saw Jesus face-to-face on March 20, 2026, at the age of 77. He was surrounded by the love of his family at his home of 40 years in Roswell, Georgia.

David was born on March 8, 1949, in Graham, North Carolina. As a young man, he worked alongside his grandfather, Samuel William Westbrook, on the family’s tobacco farm; an experience that helped shape his strong work ethic and quiet humility. He was a talented athlete, excelling in both basketball and baseball, and graduated from Eastern Alamance County High School in 1967. That same year, David began his studies at North Carolina State University (“NC State”), where he pursued a degree in Computer Engineering the same year that NC State established its Department of Computer Science. After graduating from NC State in 1971, he began a long and successful career with AT&T in Atlanta, Georgia.

In 1975, David met the love of his life, Kathy, and they were married on November 9 of that year. David’s earthly days were marked by a quiet contentment in considering others more important than himself, a joy in providing for his family, and a confidence in knowing Jesus Christ as his Savior. After full days at work, David generously committed to coaching boys’ basketball and baseball through Roswell Area Parks and steadfastly supported his children in all their academic and athletic pursuits. He found great joy in being present for his family and in being a faithful husband, father, and grandfather.

David was preceded in death by his parents, King William Westbrook and Nina Garrison Westbrook, and by a grandchild whose first home was heaven.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Kathy Williams Westbrook; his son, Bradley William Westbrook, and daughter in law, Elizabeth Griffin Westbrook; his daughter, Amy Leigh Young, and son in law, Kevin Donald Young; his cherished grandchildren, Annalise Gold Westbrook, Hannah Grace Young, and Adele Katherine Westbrook, all of Roswell, Georgia; and his sister, Carolyn Solino (Richard) of Axton, Virginia.

A private burial will be held on the morning of March 26, 2026. Visitation with family and friends will take place on March 26, 2026, from 12:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Lebanon Baptist Church in Roswell, Georgia.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Rise Up! for Christ.

Tribute Wall

EW

“ David was one the nicest people that I have ever known. All through high school at Eastern Alamance and all the times I would run into him while was still around Alamance County. Rest in peace David.
Edith Langley Williams

Edith Langley Williams - March 30 at 07:13 PM

CF

“ I met and played basketball with David my Junior year at Eastern. David was a quiet and very nice guy. My sincere condolences and sympathy to the Westbrook family

charles Fonville - March 25 at 08:05 PM

LH

“ I was so sorry to hear about David's passing. We were in school from 1st grade all the way through NCSU. We went our separate ways after college, and for that I truly regret. We spent a lot of time together while growing up, and I particularly remember our sports days on the baseball field at Pleasant Grove Elementary School.
Truly sorry for your loss!
Kind regards
Larry Hopkins

Larry Hopkins - March 25 at 02:25 PM

GB

“ David was always so kind and considerate of others-as those of us who went to school with him will remember-his smile, his laugh and he was tall! I know God has him organizing Heaven now, waiting for friends and family as time may pass. God bless and may he rest in peace. Carolyn, my thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

Gail McCauley Barnette

Gail McCauley Barnette - March 25 at 02:05 PM

LA

“ David was such a sweet, caring person during our high school years together and it sounds like he stayed the same throughout his life. Prayers going up for his family.

Linda Allred - March 25 at 12:57 PM

JS

“ Carolyn, I am sorry sorry for you loss. You brother was a very nice kid and as an adult. Know your family is in my thoughts and prayers!

Jackie Graham Sawyer

Jackie Graham Sawyer - March 25 at 09:43 AM

GL

David was a year ahead of me n high school. We were such a close knit group age was not important. David was a great athlete who was always kind to everyone. I am so very sorry for your great loss.

Gloria Long - March 25 at 04:57 PM

GP

I remember David from our time at NCSU. His buddies became my buddies. My thought and prayers are with his family.

Greg Parker - March 29 at 07:44 PM