“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of Debbi's passing. We were close friends in high school and had so many awesome times together. I was honored to be in Debbi and Mark's wedding in August of 1975 - they were meant for each other and were so happy and in love.

Although we had some communications a few years ago, I had always hoped to see her at our next high school reunion. In our emails to each other she thanked God for all her blessings of her husband, wonderful sons and grandchildren. You could feel the excitement in her typed words as she spoke about them.

To Mark and the family please accept my deepest sympathies. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Much love to you all, Cathy Hanes Stroud

“ I'm not very good at speaking during upsetting events; however, I know this... this woman was three things to me: Class, Love and Dedication. She was Class personified, her love was endless and her dedication to family and friends was endless. She leaves a large space in everyone's heart and soul. Sorely missed, but I'm sure the Father has her at his side. Will never forget how she dubbed me with the name "Two-fer" when I took her for a drink after she first started with JD. We went across the street and I ordered two beers and she scratches her head and asks why - I told her that it did two things - - saved the waitress' tip and my patience. So ever since then she's always referred to me as Two-fer.

Ever since our trip back to ATL from Cleveland on 9/11 she and I have been the best of friends. (Mark - you know the rest and her dedication to a friend since last June (2013) - CLASS!) Mark, Brandon and Sean - always know that your wife and mama loved you without parameters; always in her conversations were you three - and her grand babies.

Love in my heart - Two-fer

“ Big hugs to Mark and the family. I know this will be a very big void for all of you. Debbi was very positive coming into the office every day pointing out what we need to thank God for. Debbi will always be remembered - she made a difference everywhere she went. No other person I know would have spent the time and effort she did on a family of ferral cats here in Dallas. She loved animals so much! Debbi will live on in those that knew her well. God please bless her family. Big hugs from Dallas!

“ My Debbi Loo is with the Lord now, probably telling him to help me behave on this website. My friend, my mentor, my shopping partner, my corona drinker, on the border partner in crime. You are that angel that was sent to earth and now in heaven watching us from above. I know you have no doubt of my love for you. Since the first time we met in your white pant suit - I knew we would be the great friends we are today. (And yes Mom still thinks she has a maltese!)
