“ We love you all & will miss Debby terribly. She was a special friend & always shared her kind heart & laughter. She always seemed to live life to the fullest. She always had a smile, a nod & a twinkle in her eyes. She welcomed us into Potterstone, St. Thomas & into the Kania/Moorman family with open arms - just as she was welcomed into heaven a few days ago. God Bless you all & bring you the peace you deserve. If you need anything at all - we are right up the street.##imported-begin##Amy & Foster Smith##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. Kania, Adam, Josh, and Catherine,

My thoughts and prayers have been with you all through these challenging days. Please know that I admired Ms. Kania for her generosity, her compassion and caring for all she met, and for all I learned from her thoughtfulness. I will never forget her smile as she pulled me aside in the halls of Summit Hill once to tell me she was "sneaking Diet Cokes to the teachers" and again when she told me she was bringing "comfort food" to our staff through trays of baked ziti when Jannon Barker died. Thank you for allowing us to share our stories and to read others on this website. Please know that I am glad to have known her.##imported-begin##Nancy Murphy##imported-end##

“ Deb ran the race well to the end! This is the end of only a small chapter for her....she has an eternity to be praising God and singing with the angels AND having a perfect, disease-free and new body! Love to the family...may you feel God's presence and peace at this tremendous time of mourning and grief. We can be thrilled for Deb and where she is, but it's those left that will be sad for a time! Lean on the Holy Father...He is always there whether you feel it or not. Love, Jan##imported-begin##Jan Witt##imported-end##
