“ *Some of my fondest memories of growing up with Deb and her family as neighbors are getting sunburned using baby oil,walking in the woods, going up to Syes market for candy,ice skating on the ponds and many other great times.
We especially are thankful for our family get together last summer at Allens home. It was great.
We know now you are free of pain and are in God's care.##imported-begin##Janice and Paul Carlson##imported-end##*

“ To my oldest sister Deb. I have to say I am proud to be your brother. For the courage you showed through the years with MS through the months of the cancer taking you slowly from us. I will always cherish our years growing up. You whipping my ice cream for me so it was soft after all what are big sisters for. To the later years having our holidays together. To our almost weekly phone calls together usually with some laughter thrown in there and the sharing of what was going on in our lives a couple thousand miles away. This morning as I was thinking back on you. This song came on. Its one of my favorite songs and is appropriate to now. I know you are where the Blue Birds fly and looking down on us all.

To Bob, Jess and Hollie. Your wife / mother was a wonderful sometimes stubborn □ person. My thoughts hopes and prayers are with you. Be strong and know we love you.

Love your little Brother Brian

Somewhere over the rainbow
Way up high
And the dreams that you dreamed of
Once in a lullaby ii ii iii o
Somewhere over the rainbow
Blue birds fly
And the dreams that you dreamed of
Dreams really do come true ooh ooooh
Someday I'll wish upon a star
Wake up where the clouds are far behind me ee ee eeh
Where trouble melts like lemon drops
High above the chimney tops that's where you'll find me oh
Somewhere over the rainbow bluebirds fly
And the dream that you dare to, why, oh why can't I? I iii

Well I see trees of green and
Red roses too,
I'll watch them bloom for me and you

*And I think to myself
What a wonderful world*

*Well I see skies of blue and I see clouds of white
And the brightness of day
I like the dark and I think to myself
What a wonderful world*

*The colors of the rainbow so pretty in the sky
Are also on the faces of people passing by
I see friends shaking hands
Saying, "How do you do?"
They're really saying, I... I love you
I hear babies cry and I watch them grow,
They'll learn much more
Than we'll know
And I think to myself
What a wonderful world (w)oooorld*

*Someday I'll wish upon a star,
Wake up where the clouds are far behind me
Where trouble melts like lemon drops
High above the chimney top that's where you'll find me
Oh, Somewhere over the rainbow way up high
And the dream that you dare to, why, oh why can't I? I hiii?

“ *Jess & Olivia,
You and your family are in my thoughts and deepest prayers. You are beautiful people, a true reflection of your amazing mom/grandmother. She will now get to smile down on you from heaven, free of all pain, and see how amazing you are and what awesome people she raised. God bless you and keep you. Know that He is there for you, waiting for you to reach out to Him day or night. I'm here for you too. With all my love, ~Suzanne##imported-begin##Suzanne Altschul##imported-end##*
