“ My condolences to all the family. To Connie, I do know the pain of losing a sibling all too well. My heart aches for you and while the only words I can say is I am sorry, someday you will be able to smile again when you think of her. Love to you all.##imported-begin##Connie Morrow##imported-end##

“ I grew up with Deb and loved her like a sister. Mattie her mom has always been like a Mother to me and treated me the same as Deb and Connie. I will miss Deb so much. I know i will see her again and look forward to that day when we can rejoice in our meeting. I love you Deborah...##imported-begin##Marlene ( Turner ) Schmidt##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to all of you. I know that each of you will miss Deb dearly. I pray that you find comfort knowing that she is in a place that holds much more happiness than this world ever could. No more suffering, with physical illness or tears shed from a heart full of pain. Though she is not hear in body she will forever live in your hearts. Far from the end for her just the beginning of a life full of joy. Take heart in knowing that she is in Heaven and that you will get to see her again one day. Your family holds a special place in my heart always has. May God comfort your hearts and bring you peace in the days to come In Jesus sweet name##imported-begin##Sindy (Phillips) Smith##imported-end##
