“ Don will be missed by all. He has been a part of our Bunco friends' gatherings, and he and Ginger were always gracious hosts when we met at their home. Don and Ginger's family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Uncle Don was one of those people who always made you feel welcome. I remember, even as a kid, how much I loved those big family dinners at his house. He would greet us at the door, and I always felt so important as he asked me and my sister about school and seemed truly interested to hear what we had to say. And then the best part -- he would remind us how we had to "earn" our dinner by finding a golf ball in his backyard. We would run outside and happily join our cousins who were playing and trying to "earn" their dinners, too. As I got older and hosted some of those family dinners myself, I loved to see Uncle Don with my own sons, discussing sports, school, and life. He made them feel important and special, too. We love you, Uncle Don. You will be missed!
