“ She always called me “little Sandy”- even on one of her last birthday parties at Camellia. Doris was always smiling and full of fun. Mother told so many stories of Doris pulling pranks (usually on Audrey) during their childhood. They grew up in very challenging times, but the love in that family made a special bond between them- a family’s love and devotion to each other that I was blessed to have witnessed and received. My grandparents instilled faith and love so deeply in their family that it reaches through many generations, and will to come. I have so many memories of all of my aunts - at Nanny and Pa’s during all of the holidays, at church every Sunday and Bible School every summer. Doris always had a great attitude and spirit- I can still hear her laugh. Dennis was her joy. I know that she is laughing and singing in heaven with my mother (Jewell), and Aunt Audrey. The heavens have been made more beautiful and wonderful by their presence. Rest easy, my sweet aunt. I love you, Doris.

“ I could not share just one memory of my Aunt Doris, because I have so many sweet memories of her and my Hawkins side of the family I could write a book. Doris was a warm, thoughtful, loving lady, and she punctuated all that love with the best sense of humor and a wonderful laugh. My mother (Jewell), Doris, Audrey, and Shirley (the first four children) were angels in my life as I grew up. Their voices harmonizing every Sunday morning at Mt. Pisgah was the sweetest music I ever heard. Rest easy, dear Doris. Go sing those beautiful melodies in Heaven. I will love and miss my precious Aunt Doris always, Connie
