

Dorothy Jeanine Duncan

August 7, 1933 - February 3, 2024

Dorothy "Jeanine" (Whiddon) Duncan entered her eternal life on February 3, 2024, at the age of 90 years. A blue-eyed baby, born in Cairo, Georgia on August 7, 1933, Jeanine was the youngest of four children born to Offie & Annie Whiddon. Annie died of pneumonia when Jeanine was just 6 years old. It was a loss she felt throughout her life. Her father never remarried.

Jeanine adored her grandparents, James Calvin & Margaret Maddox Whiddon. She relayed many memories of happy times at their home. Being musically gifted, as a young girl she played piano for several churches in her area.

Jeanine was very social, enjoying many life-long friendships. She was a Christian, and for many years, shared her lovely voice as an active member of Mableton First Baptist Church choir.

Jeanine was also an accomplished hairdresser & businesswoman. For many years, she operated her own fully equipped beauty shop from her home. Her appointment book was always full.

Jeanine & Willard were united in marriage July 17, 1953, a marriage lasting for over 60 years. Jeanine formed a special bond with her mother-in-law, Tessie, whom she loved very much. After a few years of marriage, the couple moved to metro Atlanta, eventually settling in Powder Springs & then the Austell area. Jeanine was so proud of her three sons, all of which were successful professionals: Dennis became a Lawyer, Dale became a Doctor, & Dana became a Senior Program Analyst. Jeanine was a loving Wife, Mother & Grandmother. She was an excellent cook, cultivated lovely gardens at the family home on Wade Road, and was a beauty with great personal style regarding hair & clothing. Trips to Lake Burton, Panama City Beach, and south Georgia for family visits & reunions, were much anticipated by all. She was much loved by family and friends.

Jeanine is preceded in death by her husband, Herman Willard Duncan; mother, Annie Paul Johnson Whiddon; father, Offie Lee Whiddon; sister, Kathleen Whiddon Johnson; brothers: Bernard Whiddon & Carroll Whiddon.

Jeanine is survived by her sons: Dennis Lee Duncan of Macon (children: Dennis L. Duncan, Jr., Hope Duncan), Dale Ray Duncan (Dana) of Woodstock (children: Laura Duncan, Audra Duncan), Dana Van Duncan (Terri) of Acworth (children: Sarah Duncan, Isaac Duncan). Jeanine shared a special bond with nieces, Cathie Duncan Blackburn & Linda Johnson Massey, both of whom were with Jeanine during her last days and hours.
