

Mr. Doug Alan Hazelwood

April 7, 1971 - March 17, 2016

Douglas Alan Hazelwood of Woodstock, Georgia was born on April 7, 1971 in Tampa, Florida. He departed this life on March 17, 2016. He is survived by a brother, John P. Hazelwood of Atlanta, Georgia and a sister, Sherri L. Hicks of Acworth, Georgia, his parents Walter C. and Marsha L. Hazelwood of Roswell, Georgia, and his grandmother, Margaret E. Head, also of Roswell, as well as aunts, uncles and cousins.

Doug graduated from New Bremen High School in 1989, went to Florida College in Temple Terrace, Florida, and graduated with honors from DeVry Institute with an Associate of Applied Science in Electronics and Computer Technology in 2001. After that, he used his skills as a customer service support agent for Phillips Medical until his death.

He was a self-taught drummer for two local bands, most recently one named AC/DC Tribute Band and died just after a performance with them in Marietta. He overcame some major obstacles in life, but almost always had a happy spirit and a lively sense of humor, both of which will be missed by many.

“ Sorry for your loss. At FC Doug started calling me "All Weather", which I returned by calling him the same. From all that I have read about him in the last week, I only hope that I can be half as much an all-weather friend to others as he obviously was.

“ I only got the privilege of actually hanging out with him once, but he was so happy, and very easy to talk to. I felt so at ease with him. I really looked forward to meeting with him again, in fact, I was invited that fateful night. Now I won't see him until...
I will miss you Dougie.

“ I wasn't close friends with Doug at FC. We always spoke when we saw each other on campus. I remember that he was the very first person to introduce himself and speak to me at FC. That meant a lot to me because I am from a small town and I was so worried that I wouldn't be able to make friends. I can still remember that day like it was yesterday. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“I went to high school with Doug, he was always such a sweet person. We enjoyed many many laughs. I haven't see him in a great many years and it was nice reconnecting with him on Facebook. I am so very very sorry for your loss. I will keep your family in my prayers. Rest in peace.”

“Doug was one of my dearest friends while I attended Florida College. We were able to reconnect over the past 5 years thanks greatly to social media. It is heartbreaking to know, we were scheduled to meet up in during my travels through Atlanta just days after his passing.

Doug was an Amazing soul that would light up a room the moment he entered it! He had a passion for God, a zest for life, love, friendship and a talent to express himself through music which all were Evident in each of his days on here on earth. His generous laugh and deep compassion are two of the many wonderful characteristics that I will cherish most when I reflect on Doug. I loved him deeply as my friend and my brother in Christ.

I can only imagine the pain of losing a son so young and wish warmth thoughts of peace to his family during your time of healing. May God provide you comfort and joy that Doug is now resting at His side. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

When I look to Heaven I believe that Doug will now forever be a light shining down on us from above! RIP my good Friend, you will forever be missed!

“ My deepest and sincere condolences to the family, May you find comfort in one of the promises made by Jehovah God in Isaiah 65:17-25 “17.For look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth; And the former things will not be called to mind, Nor will they come up into the heart... 20. No more will there be an infant from that place who lives but a few days, Nor an old man who fails to live out his days. For anyone who dies at a hundred will be considered a mere boy hey will not toil for nothing ...Nor will they bear children for distress, Because they are the offspring made up of those blessed by Jehovah, And their descendants with them. 24 Even before they call out, I will answer; While they are yet speaking, I will hear. 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together, The lion will eat straw just like the bull, And the serpent’s food will be dust. They will do no harm nor cause any ruin in all my holy mountain,” says Jehovah.”
