“ We are very sorry for your loss.
While I didn't know Ann well, I do have the pleasure of knowing her greatest treasure, Robyn. Ann was both intelligent and crafty. The quilts she made are beautiful. Robyn clearly is much like her mom. Robyn you can be at peace knowing that you did everything you could to make sure your mom was comfortable and had the love of her family around her. Gabrielle and Logan are great kids and I'm sure it gave your mom great joy to be near them. God Bless, The Longs##imported-begin##Sheri Long##imported-end##

“ Dear Robyn, Bo, Logan and "Gabbyelle":

I am very sad to hear about Grammy's passing, but feel that I have been blessed hearing about all the ways you cared for and loved her during her final days. From the very first diagnosis and through many medical challenges, you spent every day nurturing her through good and bad, filling her hear with joy, and tending to her every need and comfort. Your Grammy's legacy is the love and encouragement she inspired in each of you, and the way you shared the very best of your own hearts serves as her greatest testimony. And the Lord said, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." Let peace fill your hearts and let your love and memory of Grammy sustain you, always.##imported-begin##Suzie Gladle##imported-end##

“ Robyn + family,

My heart is broken for you all. This month will be 20 years since my mother left us. I can tell you from experience - you never forget - you just learn to live with the pain. I found strength in my children (they were young like yours). You will see your mother in their smiles and habits and you will know that she still lives through all of you. My prayers and love are with you. Ulana##imported-begin##Ulana Kowal##imported-end##

“ To Ann and her family,
Even though I have had the pleasure of visiting with you only a few times Ann and have never seen your quilts, which I have heard are quite beautiful, I do know your daughter Robyn. As you are now with God please know that you have left us a treasure here on earth, you raised an amazing daughter. I can only hope that my girls turn out like yours did.

Rest in peace Dr. Ann J. Hughes.

God Bless,

“ Mom, I feel I have passed the final test of my faith: saying goodbye to my mother. 41 years ago you brought me into this world. For the past few days, I stood at your side and watched you slip into the next. Though you are passed and no longer with me in this life, I wanted to tell you once again that I love you. Whether you can look down from heaven and read these words or the angels carry this message of love to you I do not know, but it is my hope that you know how much you mean to us and that we miss you immensely. The last few months have been filled with so many emotions... sadness, anger, regret, joy, but most of all love. I am so grateful that we were blessed with the opportunity to spend this time together. And I am thankful I could be beside you through it all, to hold your hand and comfort you. You are an very strong person whom I admire and love dearly. I wish you were still here with us, though I am glad that you no longer suffer and are finally at peace. You are a wonderful mom and the best Grammy my kids could ever have. It is difficult to accept that I will never see you again on this earth and that my children will never hear your loving voice this side of heaven, but I know one joyous day we will meet again. I will always love you and will miss you forever. I look forward to the day we will meet again in heaven.##imported-begin##Your loving daughter, Robyn##imported-end##
