“ Dr. Turcotte & Family, I will send you (Dr. Turcotte) a follow up letter as to how I found you this past week - all from God. Sam & John were two of my favorite IHOP employees (1970+) and you guys & your mom had the nicest of families. I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Sam and I was not aware that mom had gone home to the Lord. My wife and I are missionaries and travel all over the world. Next month - Thailand-Myanmar (Burma) "God uses the foolish to confound the wise." 1st Corth 1:27 Our prayers are with you - God Bless, Ed & Ginny Cook##imported-begin##Ed Cook##imported-end##

“ We are very sorry to hear about Sam's passing. Although it's been many years since seeing Sam, he was dearly loved by Joni and I. For those who knew him as (Crazy Sam) you might remember he married us in 1977 in a backyard hippie wedding. Regretably we won't be able to attend the wake and funeral. Old friends that know us, please e-mail us rodsanders@comcast.net. Love, Rodney @ Joni.###imported-begin##Rodney and Joni Sanders###imported-end##
