

Dr. Nancy Baird

March 27, 1931 - January 8, 2008

BAIRD – Dr. Nancy Baird of Roswell, GA, passed away January 8, 2008. Dr. Baird had been Professor of Psychology at Morehouse College and had her private practice as a clinical psychologist in Atlanta and Roswell for 35 years. She was a level “A” Alta tennis player for 30 years and an accomplished pianist. A son, Fred Cutts of Atlanta, preceded Dr. Baird in death. She is survived by her husband, Leonard Rothman of Roswell; daughter, Sydney Arthur of Douglasville; sons, Charles Cutts of Dawsonville, John Cutts of Atlanta, Greg Rothman of Alpharetta and Jonathan Rothman of Brooklyn, NY; sister, Betty Beasley of Lomita, CA; five grandchildren. The memorial service for Dr. Baird will be Saturday, January 12, 2008 at 11:00 AM in the chapel of Northside Chapel Funeral Directors. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to PAWS Atlanta at pawsatlanta.org or to Second Chance Animal Rescue at secondchancedogs.org. The family will receive friends immediately following the service at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell/Alpharetta, 770/645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com

“ Sydney,
Thanks so much for calling Mom. I wanted to share a very special memory for me about Aunt Nancy. We had come to visit Grandmommy Baird. I was 14 years old. There was a burger joint that everyone had gone to for years near her house and Aunt Nancy took us over for lunch. When we walked in the guy behind the counter looked at her and said, I won't serve him." I looked around to see who he was talking to and it was me. You see, I wore my hair quite long(its even longer now, but with a little gray). It didn't take a second for Aunt Nancy to light into him. I'm sure he's still in therapy to this day trying to recover. It ended with a proclamation that not only would we not ever eat there again, but she would tell everyone she knew to do the same.
It took me a while to understand that experience, but I knew instantly that Aunt Nancy had my back and how important it is to stand up for yourself. I see her right now as if it were yesterday and that is how I will always remember her.

*Take care,
Your cousin,
David###imported-begin##David Simmons###imported-end##*

“ Dear Len and family - I had known Nancy professionally for years, but I had not seen her for awhile until I ran into her at a meeting last year. The encounter reminded me of the warmth, intelligence and caring that she exuded. She will be missed by many, and my world and the world of others will be emptier except for the love that she left behind.##imported-begin##Edward Leader##imported-end##
