

Edna Aliece Turner Wells

October 20, 1912 - November 5, 2007

Mrs. Edna Aliece Wells, 95 of Roswell died of complications from pneumonia on Monday, November 5, at Metropolitan Hospice. Born in Bemiss, GA on Oct. 20, 1912, Mrs. Wells worked for several years at Georgia Power Co. in Valdosta where she met and married Thomas C. Wells, her husband of 55 years. They moved to Atlanta in 1961 and lived in Buckhead until Mr. Wells' death in 1996. Since that time her home has been at Chambrel in Roswell where she made many friends among the residents and staff. She was a member of Roswell Presbyterian Church. The perfect homemaker, loving wife, mother, and grandmother, she will be missed by all. Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Tom and Holly Wells, and daughter and son-in-law, Sara and Richard Vogel, all of Roswell. Grandchildren are Tommy Wells, Angela Wells, Paul Vogel and Chris Vogel. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 PM on Friday, Nov. 9 in the historic sanctuary of the Roswell Presbyterian Church, 755 Mimosa Blvd., Roswell, GA. Family and friends are invited to gather on Friday at 11:30 AM for visitation and refreshments in the narthex of the main sanctuary. In lieu of flowers please make donations in her memory to the Roswell Presbyterian Church.
