“ Jessica and Family,

Words fail to express our sorrows for your loss. Please know we are with you through this difficult time and our hearts, thoughts and prayers go out to you and the family. I pray that your memories will comfort you and bring joy back to your saddened hearts.

John 16:22 - So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.

“ There are absolutely no words to come close to encompassing the life of my grandmother. She was the best. She was my biggest fan, my favorite person, my role model, the best granny and great grandmother. She was like a mother to me, we were so close.. I just can't find anywords to adequately describe how much I love and adore her. The only comfort I have found is she is walking the streets of heaven with my Papa and her family. 88 years will never be enough time...I know what a blessing that time was and cherish every second....I hope I can continue to make her proud and she can watch my babies grow with Papa. She left behind so much love but a void that aches. I love you so very much granny. Until we meet again, oh what a day that will be. Until then I will cherish our memories and be grateful, so very grateful, God blessed us with you.

*When I met Edna and Edward Lingerfelt they made me feel as if I was part of the family even before Ron and I were married.
Edna was my second mother and I can not begin to tell every one how much I loved and still love her and will miss her!
She was a friend to everyone she meet and everyone felt as if she was their mother, grandmother and best friend.*
