“ I work at De La Salle Collegiate in Warren, MI, and got to know Ed over the years. His high school, St. Joe's, also staffed by Christian Brothers. When St. Joe's closed in 1964, their alumni group merged in with us here at De La Salle. When I sent out alumni emails, Ed invariably would email me with a congratulatory note. He would occasionally be in town, and we would connect for a few minutes. Over the last few years, we would occasionally text each other, and sometimes talk on the phone. I would call, as I watched the Master's, and call and say, "What's with all the rain?" We had that kind of friendship - no need for small talk. I think our last conversation may have been on New Year's Day? I will miss his kind words and his upbeat positive manner. I consider myself to be so privileged that I got to know Ed and Julie.

“ We were very sorry to hear Ed's passing. Ed was a great man, and with his wife Julie, raised a beautiful family. We often recall his sense of humor and his many "deals."
