“ What an incredibly sad thing to find after searching for Storey on Facebook after so many years not in contact 😞 I'll never forget our high school math class together, sharing headphones and listening to Job For a Cowboy. Meeting back up a few years after high school and enjoying drum circle together on Siesta Key. Missing you, Storey.

“ Storey,

Elkins Pointe Middle School is where we met , laughed and cracked jokes, attended some of the same classes, and passed funny notes during class.

When I heard the news yesterday of your passing from another classmate, I instantly shedded tears.

I'll always remember your beautiful spirit and the way we made each other smile.

My sincerest condolences to your family and friends. 🕊️🙏

Rest in Heaven my dear "Storey" until we meet again someday.

*Lots of Love,
Korrie*

“ My dearest brother Storey, you were an inspiration to me. You were true lover of life and people. You always had the most positive personality, and you put all the lessons we learned to work to better yourself and those around you. You brought so many people together for so many good times, and no one can forget those memories.

The world took you away from us far too soon.

“ Edward! You will be missed for sure. I don't think we talked or hung out as much as we probably should have, but when we did it was always a good time. There were many late nights, and long days. I'm sad we won't have the opportunity to do so again. You always had hilarious in-game names, which you knew would make us all laugh. Thanks for all the good times. You had it rough at times but never let it bother you or keep you down. Love you brother, rest in peace.

“ Ed, It's still hard to believe you are gone, you always stayed true to yourself no matter the situation or people you were around. Everyone loved hanging out with you. Throughout the years I have known you, you brought much laughter and joy to everyone around. You and your late night discussions/Edcast will be missed. Rest in peace.

“ Ed I can't believe you're gone. You were such a fighter when the chips were down you still continued forward & did the best you could.

Sometimes I wondered the nights we talked for a while and the trust you've placed with me, I wish I had the chance to at least catch up but now that you're gone... I'll do my best to carry the memories of your energetic, goofy self forward, thank you for being who you are and allowing me to have met you and through you many more people. May you rest in peace ed.

“ Storey was smart, funny, sarcastic and great company. But what was special was the bond he had with his father. Sure, there were mash ups like any father and son have. But Storey and his father had a bond rarely seen.

Rest in Peace Storey

“ Storey, I am irreconcilable and so is my sister. You were part of our family. You loved my sister, you were beyond kind to my brothers, and you were there for me through one of the darkest periods of my life. You always encouraged me to hold my head high and push myself to be better, to do better, to not be a victim. You didn't see my situation or circumstance ever or judge me by it, you only ever saw who I was at my core and what I could be. You pushed me, and my buttons, but you are one of the most honest people I have ever met. You were fearless. Unapologetic and unwavering. You had integrity and an emotional intelligence that many people simply don't have. I could always go deep with you. Raw. Honest. You were an amazing friend and very tender hearted and we have always seen you as family. We are so heartbroken. The world lost a real gem. You were wrought with wit, you always made me laugh, and you challenged me in ways that nobody else ever could. Storey, you pushed me to do better. You had incredible insight into the deep parts of people and the underbelly of the world that nobody wanted to look at. You're my zenith now... up there somewhere in the stars. I pray the Lord meet you with open arms and I pray we meet again one day on the other side. Until that time, you will be missed very much, remembered often, and never forgotten. As the time comes to lay another friend to rest, I will do what I do and keep pushing forward carrying the torch. Storey I love you, my sister loves you, my brothers... you're leaving a big hole in a lot of people's lives. It's safe to say you made your mark. We love you dear one. Your life was precious. Thank you for being my friend.
