“ My deepest condolences to Lee, Michelle, Vicki and all of Elaine’s family, loved ones and friends for the loss of your loving partner, mother, cousin, friend and family member.

Elaine was a beautiful treasure, always smiling that beautiful big smile of hers, and always positive, gracious, loving and kind.

Elaine was my best friend of fifty years. We were trying to decide on a day to get together for lunch when I suddenly received word that she was in the hospital recovering from massive strokes.

It seems like yesterday when we met at The Lakes Apartments in Vinings, Georgia, and where I spent many days visiting with Elaine, her mom and stepfather, and her daughter Michelle.

Elaine and I shared so much laughter and fun times together with friends at poolside, at various restaurants and dance clubs “back in the day”, and many Friday nights doing the “Buckhead Crawl” enjoying Atlanta nightlife together.

Elaine met her life partner, Lee Morris, and I lost my “wing lady”, but we remained close friends forever.

My life will never be the same now that my best friend is gone, but Elaine will always live in my heart and memories for as long as I live.

Rest In Peace my beautiful friend.

I will laugh with you again some day.
