

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hinds Caswell

November 26, 1917 - September 3, 2014

Caswell – Elizabeth Jane Hinds Caswell, age 96, was born November 26, 1917 in Rockwood, Tennessee, to Bertie and Robert Hinds. Most of her childhood years were spent at 1299 Allene Ave. in southwest Atlanta. She married Amos Bernard Caswell (deceased 1946) in 1937. They had two sons, Kenneth and Ted. She attended Capitol View Presbyterian Church in Atlanta. Elizabeth's entire working career was with Rich's department store, the majority of the time as a supervisor in the personnel records department. She retired in 1983 and moved to Alpharetta to be near her son Ted and daughter-in-law Carolyn and her three grandchildren, Lauren, Toby and Jennifer. In following years, she became a great-grandmother to seven girls, Caroline, Natalie, Georgia Jane, Kylie, McLaine, Olivia and Anne Louise. She was an active member of the Alpharetta First United Methodist Church for over 30 years. Elizabeth died of heart failure on September 3, 2014 following a stroke in August. A memorial service will be held at the Alpharetta First United Methodist Church on Sunday, September 7 at 3:00pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the American Heart Association.

“ My condolences to Mrs Caswell's family. She ran the Personnel Record room in 1968 when I joined Rich's and continued after I moved from HR to the stores in 1976. She was a wonderful woman to work with always in good spirits and helped train many people over the years. John Huey
