“ We are friends of Kim & Tim Minear living in Denver, CO. We wish to send condolences to the family and wish we lived closer to attend the funeral. Although we did not know Mrs. Pursley, we shared wonderful things about her with Kim and Tim. It is always hard to lose someone you love, but we hope it makes it a little easier to know that friends will keep you in their thoughts and prayers and hopefully knowing that will make it a little easier. You are so fortunate to have such a wonderful family that you can depend on each other. Also, you all can celebrate Mrs. Pursley's life by remembering and honoring her life. Again, our thoughts are with all of you; especially you, Kim, as my very dear friend forever! Love you and Tim very much!##imported-begin##Joyce and Carl Herring,

Joe Rae has informed us of Bettys passing and although it would be impossible for us to feel the deep pain and sorrow that you and your family are going through, we still wish to convey our most heartfelt sympathy.

Like the waves of the ocean washing away the sand castles on the shore, the tides of time will wash away the memories of pain she suffered these last several years, but memories of her wit and laugh will remain forever.

“ The Heavens opened and called down to her

*Elizabeth (Betty) Pursley its time for you to come home!!!
I want you to sit by my side and watch over everyone with me.
Betty answered this call.*

*Betty (Kims Mom) passed away last evening and is now seated where she can watch over us all. We are very sad but very happy, she has no more pain, no more illnesses and can see all her Five children, all her grandchildren, family and all her friends everyday.
She was a spirited Woman with a love for life and a flare for the obvious. Never letting life or troubles get her down. Strong Bold and very Courageous, Her spirit will live with all her knew her and hopefully not haunt any of us.*

“ *Aunt Betty, It is amazing how someone can touch your life - just by being yourself. You have taught me the value of family, the concept that love can last forever - the ability to see the good in life...not by any lecture or lesson - but by how you lived your life. You will always be my "second" mom...and, as you very well know...sometimes I thought of you as my "first". Love you now - love you always.
