“ My sincerest condolences to the family. May you take comfort in the wonderful hope provided at Revelation 21:4.

“ Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone. Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone. Silence the pianos and with muffled drum. Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.

*Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead, scribbling on the sky the message - She Is Dead. Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves.
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.*

She was our North, our South, our East and West. Our working week and our Sunday rest. Our noon, our midnight, our talk, our song; We thought that love would last for ever: We were wrong.

*The stars are not wanted now: put out every one. Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun. Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood.
For nothing now can ever come to any good.*

W.H. Auden
