I lived down the street from Emil on Wellington Road.in Elmont. I'm just a few years older. Very competitive kid growing up. His dad was a pleasure. I'm not exactly sure when the Piccapietra family moved on.

“ I only saw Emil Picc a few times, but I have a great memory of when we all went to a Met game at Shea Stadium. We were in a box--Mr. and Mrs. Picc were there, the aunts and Emil and his family, Kim and Robin. When Mr. Met walked into the box, Emil went charging at him, followed by Nick and Chris. All three of them wrapped their arms around Mr. Met. They were so excited. It was awesome. RIP Emil Picc.
