“ Never in my life have I ever seen so many people at a funeral or visitation. Even my mom said the same thing. It was obvious how much Eric's life has touched us. He made all of us feel special. . . like the only person around. But looking around at his funeral, I realized that he made a lot of people feel like. I keep finding pictures, notes passed in high school, football game memorabilia, and even just going to Taco Mac is hard. Eric will be forever missed. “ Crenshaw was a guy who "got" life. He wasn't hampered by the little mundane things that so many people choose to focus on. It saddens me deeply that his time was cut so short, and that he couldn't spread more joy to those of us who are still here, and in desperate need of a smile like his. God be with you and your family, friends and fiancée.##imported-begin##Nick Tapp##imported-end##

“ I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Crenshaw for raising such a kind, loving, honest, and respectable man. I will miss seeing Eric smile, but hope that he will wear that smile always. I love Eric and know that many feel the same way. Today I feel that the real loss is for those who never got to meet my friend. To Cori, Nick, and the rest of the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Eric, please know that you were very special to many and will be missed more than you know.

“ Eric "Crenshaw" will definitely be missed. Words cannot describe a person such as Eric. He was good hearted, always thought of the rights and feelings of others, before his own, and was just a true gentlemen. He touched all of us in a very special way. I will never forget him or his smile. Although, we may never know the reason for him leaving us all at such an early age, God has a plan and a purpose for everything. May God be with and bless the Crenshaw family, through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Darrell Carley##imported-end##

“ Rembering Crenshaw, I picture him to be 7 feet tall. And a smile big as Texas. In my time knowing him he was always on my case, I loved it. I did things that Eric didn't believe were right, I also knew they weren't right. Two days before I heard of his passing I thought to myself "Man, Crenshaw would be glad to see that I have turned things around". Eric was the most genuine person I knew. Crenshaw was real, he never sugar-coated anything. I loved that about him. Every man who knew him wished they could be more like him. Cori, at times like this it is hard to understand why God does what he does. Know that everything happens for a reason, and that at times like this there is no better place to look for guidance than to God. I talked many times with Crenshaw on the back steps of the Chi Phi house, I look forward to our first words on the front steps of heaven.##imported-begin##Greg Copponex##imported-end##

“ Crenshaw: from the first time i met him it was impossible not to see the true meaning of a "true gentleman". We became best friends instantly, but then again how could you not! For he had the most caring and compassionate heart than any one person I had ever knew. To say he was a great man would be huge understatement- No matter how bad life seemed to be at times he always was there to bring out a smile, help deal with a dilima, and offer a warm felt hug of appreciation. I will never forget the wonderful moments we shared, the tears we wepted, and everything else in-between. If i can ever amount to half the person he was then I will undoubtly consider my self a lucky man. I know your watching over us all and listening to everyones stories about all the wonderful times we shared. I'll be thinking of you and missing you till we reunite again. “ Although I did not have the pleasure of meeting Eric I have met his family through Adam and Whitney. Having met such a wonderful family, I am assured that Eric was everything, I have read on these guestbook entries, and more.

The Bible speaks of death as an "enemy" (1 Cor 15:25-26). It is an enemy and its sting brings pain and sorrow to all it touches. The Bible also assures us of God's love and comfort during times of distress

(Isiah 61:1-2). May God wrap you in his arms and comfort your family during your time of loss.

“ "Crenshaw" was one of my best friends, he was my pledge brother, my teammate, my mentor when I needed help. He is the guy I looked up most to in college. He had my utmost respect because he was great in every sense of the word. He was a superior athlete, an incredible leader, and the guy who I could go to for anything. I know he is looking down on me now, and I am still trying to uphold his values. I will truly miss him, we won championships, shared thoughts, and had a lot of fun. From now on he will still be there when I need help, play sports, and when I eventually need a best man. He will be in my heart forever. I love you man.##imported-begin##Bryan Bellamy##imported-end##

“ Not only was Eric Crenshaw a great cousin, but he was a great friend too. One cannot really explain a tragedy like this, however I guess God needed another angel. Eric was the type of person that right when you met him, you instantly liked him. My brother and I used to go over and spend the night as little kids and would have so much fun. We would watch wrestling on T.V. and then try to act it out. Eric was the first one to get me into motorcycles. We used to go to his house and ride dirtbikes all the time and all day. We even went to the cabin in Elejay once with the bikes and had a great time riding. Eric came from a great loving family and it showed when you hung out with him. I loved Eric and still do. I love his brother Nick, and his mom and dad. They are all in my prayers.##imported-begin##Jess Mobley##imported-end##

“ The thing we will miss the most about Eric is the general presence one feels when he enters a room. He had the ability to bring a smile to your face without ever saying a word and when he did speak, a laugh would surely follow. We both knew Crenshaw in very different ways during our time at UWG and we can honestly say he enriched the lives of all who knew him ten fold. While we can't change the loss or pain we suffer, we are thankful for having the opportunity to know such a rare and genuine person. Eric was a blessing to us both. Crenshaw's family is in our prayers and will continue to be during this difficult time. “ Eric Crenshaw...a friend to me, a brother on the field, and one of the kindest warmest people I have met in my life. I have known Eric for about 8 months through my roommate Chad Curtis. He has played football with Chad and I from the beginning through our reign of championship since joining the flag football league at East Roswell Park. He was an extremely talented athlete that never missed a practice or game. That's the type of person he was. He always greeted me with a smile and a handshake. It will be a challenge to walk onto the football field next week and be missing a part of us. I wish I could have had the chance to know him better off the field. Eric Crenshaw is a champion that will never be forgotten on or off the field.##imported-begin##Chris Pastush##imported-end##

“ Crenshaw was a true leader among leaders and an inspiration to everyone in contact with him. This is an awful tragedy and was totally unexpected, but we all know where he is at this moment. Hang in there, Cory!

“ I cannot forget some of the best memories of my life with Eric in our youth group at Alpharetta FUMC. He was known and liked by all in the program. The Sunday and Wednesday nights, all the retreats, all the stories, all the laughter, all the love. I have peace remembering our conversations about God. We know you are safe and secure in Christ now. Our youth group wouldn't have been the same without you, Eric. We'll miss you terribly. Thanks for everything. We love you.##imported-begin##Mark Jones##imported-end##

“ First and foremost. Eric Crenshaw is, without doubt, one of the greatest men I have ever been in the presence of. Whether it was around the fraternity house, the football field, or moving furniture; 'Crenshaw' always exhibited the true meaning of class. He will be greatly missed and forever remembered as not only a great person but a great friend.##imported-begin##Matt Kimbro##imported-end##

“ How does one explain and deal with the sudden lost of such a great human being. I have only known Eric for 2 years and all can say is that I wished I had met him 20 years ago. Eric is the kind of friend you want beside you as you travel down lifes many roads. He always had a smile and attitude that so many people only dream of having. Eric you are true person and the people in your life are so very lucky to have known such a great person. You will be greatly missed and always remembered.

“ It is hard to express my feelings at this time. The lives that Eric impacted are too numerous to count, but the one solace that we all have is the knowledge of him as a person and the time we did share. Something very important to Eric and to us his brothers, described him perfectly and without fault.

The True Gentleman

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

I will miss you, Brother.

“ Eric Crenshaw. I cannot say that I was his best friend but he was without a doubt one of mine, and one of the best men I ever new or will know. Full of love, laughter, and honesty, Eric would always bring light on your day and a smile to your face. A competitor in life, and a true friend I am honored to have had by my side. Most importantly his family came first, including you Cory. And I know for a fact that he loved you all more than himself. You all were on a pedestal. I cannot wait to see him again and shake his hand.##imported-begin##Chad Curtis##imported-end##

“ Eric was a great man. He always had an up-beat attitude and was not afraid of hard work. If all friends were like Eric, we would all be very lucky. Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the number of times that life takes our breath. Because a life well lived, is a life well remembered.
