“ Sorry for the loss of your dear husband and to his daughters their father. Such a lovely tribute written about him. The next few months will be difficult to say the least. James 4:8 assures us that if we draw close to God he will draw close to us. We will need reliance on God to help us and to understand why such bad things or illnesses happen to good people. Please be assured of God's love for you in this time of sadness.
