“ Uncle Ernest was a wonderful and loving person. The thing I remember most was his smile. He always was happy and had a good laugh ready to come out at any time. Uncle Ernest was a gift from God to the world and he shared his love. Our family gatherings just seem right with him there. I am not sure the reason, but it felt so peaceful when Uncle Ernest was around – I am sure others could feel this to. While it may not be easy on those of us left here – he is home##imported-begin##Marty & Tyrra Hicks - Ryan and Embry##imported-end##
