“ I'm so sorry for your loss .

I'm wondering if his wife, Bette, was the same Betty who was a dear friend of mine. Betty (I thought it was spelled that way) played bingo at the American Legion on a regular basis and took a lot of trips with the Senior Citizen's groups.

I believe they once lived on or near Cogburn Road in Alpharetta. I was Betty's lawyer and we became great friends, and I've wondered for several years whatever happened to her after we lost touch . Can anyone fill me in ?

Thank you.
