

Mrs. Evelyn Hendrix Coker

May 18, 1925 - April 20, 2015

Evelyn Hendrix Coker, age 89, of Roswell, departed this world on April 20, 2015, to reunite with her beloved husband and best friend of sixty years, Henry J. Coker. Evelyn was born at home in Cherokee County on May 17, 1925, and lived in Sixes until the family moved to Kansas and later to south Georgia. She was the third daughter of Ira and Fannie Hendrix and had a total of 7 sisters and 3 brothers. She was a southern lady who loved her role as a full-time homemaker, wife and mother. Her family was always her first concern and she supported them in all of life's challenges. Her flower gardens would often cause passerby's to stop and admire their beauty while her desserts at family functions were the first to disappear. She is survived by her daughters, Patricia (Chet Baker) Matthews of Smyrna and Brenda (Larry) Moon of Cumming; grandsons, Gabriel (Sheree) Moon and Derek (Amy) Moon; granddaughters, Tiffany (Dustin) Dodson and Melissa (Nathan) Kent; seven great-grandchildren, Kayla, Max, Kayleigh, MaKayle, Joslyn, Lenox and Solomon; sisters, Ella (Tommy) Coleman and Becky Brown; sisters-in-law, Annie Lou Coker, Betty Day, Grace Coker, Ann Brown, Averil Coker Shipman and many nieces and nephews. The family will receive friends and family on Wednesday from 2:00 - 7:00 PM at Northside Chapel. Please join us in a celebration of Evelyn's life at Green Lawn Cemetery on Thursday at 1:00 PM with the eulogy being led by Chet Baker and music provided by Evelyn's nephew, Bobby Gunter. The family would like to express their gratitude to Halcyon Hospice in Sandy Springs for their compassionate care of Evelyn and to family friends for their loving support. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Alzheimer's Association. (www.alz.org/georgia), 41 Perimeter Center East, suite 550, Atlanta, GA 30346.

“ I enjoyed looking through the pictures from long ago and some that were taken recently! I am so glad that I got to know "Granny" since I've lived in Smyrna. She was kind and gentle and strong. I will never forget about 10 year ago seeing her split wood with a sledge hammer. I was amazed by her hard work!

I am praying and wishing for comfort for all of Evelyn's family!

“ Mrs. Coker was a beautiful person...a true Southern Lady. But her love for Jesus was her greatest tribute. She knew how to cook! I always enjoyed her cooking. Many times when I would come to visit she would have prepared a dish for us to enjoy...and we did. Her coconut cakes were the best ever. She is missed already. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Ms. Evelyn was such a sweet neighbor; loved her bunches; I later found she had a Simpson Burrell Grandparent, and we were distant cousins, as I also have Huldah Kansas Burrell as a grandparent. I will miss seeing her beautiful garden; and smiling face. Mary and Larry McPherson, Washington, Georgia
