“ One of my favorite stories is the day my Dad, John Donehoo, visited Evelyn and heard the parrot and the dog yelling at each other. Evelyn read them both the riot act and got them quiet -- until the parrot started singing "Jesus Loves Me." I told that story at Roswell First Baptist when I preached there a couple of years ago. Afterwards Evelyn and her son told me that the dog has since gone on to his heavenly reward but the parrot was still around and singing "Jesus Loves Me." What a lovely lady she was, and what a testament she was to love of life, love of family, love of friends, and, most of all, love for Christ.

“ I'm glad that I got to sit and talk to Mrs. Coleman the Saturday before Mother's Day. Stanley, me and Mrs. Coleman sat at her table in the kitchen, she was having KFC and of course she offered me some. The bird was yelling as usual. She even told me that she had hear I was engaged. She was the greatest. Glad I got to spend that time with her and Stanley. LOTS OF GREAT MEMORIES!

“ Coleman loved my kids right til the end, I can remember her sneaking across the street to get Zack out of daycare to keep him with her. She was loved by many and will be missed. Her great grandkids will miss her as well. God has received another great angel. God bless you Coleman! Thank you for all those great times spent together.

“ Evelyn was one of the sweetest women I have had the pleasure to know. She was sharp as a tack, had a great sense of humor, and was full of energy. I remember well Bev and I walking the River Walk with her in San Antonio when Brian and Pam married. It was all I could do to keep up with her! I last saw her about a year and a half ago, what a pleasure it was to reconnect and talk with her, she just made you feel good! I will truly miss her.

Sweet loving woman. Always welcomed in her home. Fondest memory was watching her beaming with pride surrounded by family and friends at GD Ashley Owens wedding. She even danced. What a vibrant personality she had!
