faith, she found companionship in fellow worshippers at Northside Baptist Church and First Baptist of Alpharetta, as her devotion remained anchored in God's embrace.

Nurturing more than just spirits, Evelyn sought joy in the simple pleasures of life, such as cultivating her culinary skills, tending to a blossoming garden, and the excitement of a competitive game at the bowling alley. Moreover, her commitment to service and charitable endeavors adorned her life, evident through her allegiance to the Eastern Star organization.
